Charity - Ambassadors

There are seldom so many celebrities working together for a good cause. Author Kirsten "Kiki" Kuhnert, whose son, thanks to dolphin therapy, awoke from coma after a grave accident, convinced actors like Goetz Otto and Ralf Moeller, TV hosts like Birgit Lechtermann and Norbert Dobeleit, former boxer Rolf Milser, Prince Poldi from Bavaria and Juergen Pippig (Audi), who brought along a check in the amount of Euro 50.000.00 for dolphin aid. After the meeting and the publication of the date for the next gala (October 29 at the Intercontinental in Dusseldorf), they celebrated the good result at the roof top of the new Blue Spa at the Hotel "Bayerischer Hof".
